

Pregnant?

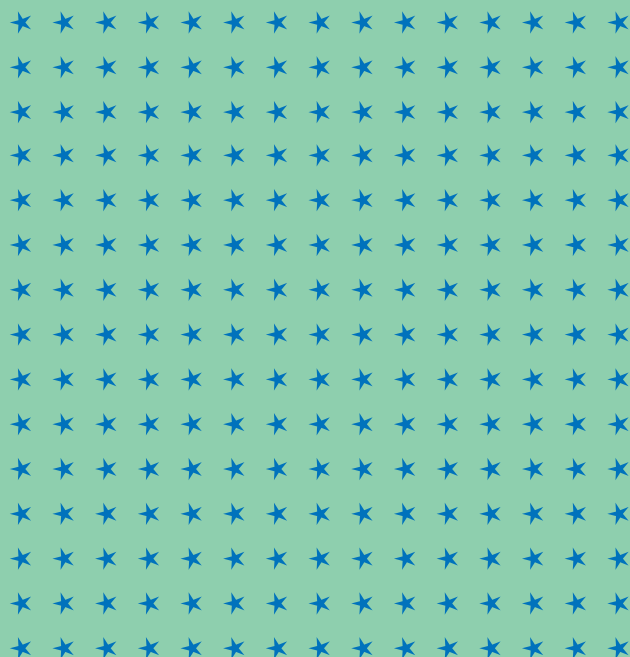

You need proof

to claim free

prescriptions.

If you're pregnant or mother of a child under one, you could face a penalty charge of up to £100 if you claim free prescriptions without a Maternity Exemption Certificate.

Your GP or midwife will be able to help you get an exemption certificate. Just ask them for more information.

nhsbsa.nhs.uk/matex

Check before you tick

